

Social Media Post for Chamber/EDC Partners to Share

Did you know bars and restaurants in North Dakota can be held liable for serving alcohol to someone who is underage or obviously intoxicated?

Fortunately, North Dakota law provides some protections for licensees who have completed alcohol server training. North Dakota Safety Council provides Responsible Beverage Server training for owners, managers, servers, bartenders and large-event staff.

Training is FREE until grant funding runs out, so register now!

<https://www.ndsc.org/impairment/responsible-beverage-server/>

Social Media Post for Government Partners to Share

We all play a role in keeping North Dakota's communities safe. If you work at an establishment that serves alcohol, you can contribute to safety in your community by attending FREE, online Responsible Beverage Server training.

North Dakota Safety Council provides this training, which is FREE right now until grant funding runs out. Register now!

<https://www.ndsc.org/impairment/responsible-beverage-server/>